Fantastic hospitality, 2 nights 3 day cruise

29 Oct 2018

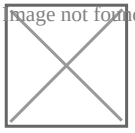

We opted for the 2N3D package for my birthday. The scenery was as pretty as the pictures and the brochures and the staff outdid themselves in making us feel at home. The junk has room for 5 couples and dining is a community activity, but we were lucky enough to have nice co travellers. Andy and Cai went out of their way to be accommodative to all of us. My husband and I were drinking dozens of cups of delicious Vietnamese coffee and Cai obliged us every time, and even showed us the brand they use. I am a non swimmer and had never kayaked before in my life, but Andy made me feel safe and we managed to kayak a total of 4 km around the islands. Big thanks to him for that. The staff gave me a gift on my birthday (as well as to another couple on their honeymoon) and sang for us too! The package also included a beachside bbq and cooking classes as well as visiting the floating villages. I had a terrific birthday :)

Highly recommended junk to discover Halong Bay

20 Oct 2018

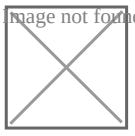

My family spent Christmas on the Red Dragon this year, taking the two night/three day package and it was an amazing experience. The boat is the perfect size as it hosts 10 people so you can meet and mingle with new faces without having a big group around you. Our co-travellerswere very nice and we all had meals together which felt very homely :)!The boat also goes on a tour of Bai Tu Long Bay which is less visitedand more preserved than Halong Bay and i definitely found the tripmore peaceful. Finally the staff is so kind, Mr T told us tales aboutVietnam, Cai and Hai were nice and entertaining, the chef cooks themost amazing food. A memorable experience!

2night/3day junk trip

My wife and I have just been on the Red Dragon Junk and had the most wonderful trip.Mr "T" the guide is very good at his job and has great English language skills. The barman Mr "Cai" is also very friendly and runs a good bar. Quality and quantity of food excellent. The size of Red Dragon with five cabins makes it a lovely size for couples and those who are looking for a more personal experience.

Brilliant! Five cabins is the perfect size.

We booked the 3D2N cruise with our family (kids 14, 11 and 8) on the Red Dragon. From the moment we were collected in the luxury van we wanted for nothing. Bottled water was in the van, our host explained what we were doing and the check in at the port was easy while our bags were loaded for us. During the cruise the food was fantastic and plentiful, the staff couldn?t help enough (especially Mr T and Mr Cai) and we loved the kayaking and interacting with the other travellers. It sounds expensive, and it was the big splurge on our trip to Vietnam, but it was totally worth it!

Even the bathroom has a beautiful view!

01 Aug 2018

After researching a trip out of Ha Long we (two older adults and our 46-year-old daughter) chose to cruise two nights on Bai Tu Long Bay in the Red Dragon (an Indochina Junk with five cabins) to avoid crowds on board and at sea. There were nine guests on this trip. My wife and I had the forward cabin with a queen and a single, windows on both sides, AC, glass walled shower, wood walls, ceiling, doors and floor. The ship, including its galley were attractive, clean and well maintained. The scenery was jaw-droppingly beautiful and all the more enjoyable with fewer boats than Ha Long Bay. Sea was calm. Excellent multi-course meals were served al fresco on linen. Kayaking, swimming, shore lunch, cave visit and floating fishing villages were enjoyable. Seven crew. Each did his job well. Mr. T (?guide?) and Cai were the two who interacted with us. They were attentive, obviously eager to please and succeeded in making us comfortable. No complaints from any of us - only compliments. Red Dragon on Bai Tu Long Bay met or exceeded expectations.
