Unforgettable country

20 Feb 2019

I enjoyed my special, memorable and often untouristy journey in Central Laos. I was lucky enough to have my own one on one guide and driver. The guide shared his local knowledge with me without drowning me in too many historical details that I would not remember. I got to see and understand the lives of the poor but hardworking local peoples. This was special. Apart from the stunning beauty of the natural surroundings. Even tho we had very little sun and lots of cloud and mist, there was plenty of atmosphere. And to visit and photograph all the intricate temples and wat. Again, casual enough not to be overwhelmed by them all. He was genuine and sincere. Just a pity the roads are so horrendously broken and rough and winding. Not pleasant driving conditions. But worth it when you finally reach another interesting destination! I will remember Laos and her people fondly.

Great itinerary. Amazing experience

Wonderful land!!! 6 days with many activities, I was so busy with enjoying an authentic Laos coffee at a local cafe, discovering Vientiane's main sites including Wat Sisaket, Pha That Luang, Patuxai Monument and COPE Center, the National Museum, walking to the tip of the Luang Prabang peninsula and visiting Wat Xieng Thong temple, etc. All were so gorgeous and interesting!!!

Worth every penny

Just back to Japan a few days, I missed the great days in Laos so much. And one of my favorite tour in this beautiful country was in Kuang Si area. I had the last day to explore the waterfalls and sites around, the garden and bear rescue centre is very large. Nice service and good food.

Highly recommend to Laos

Visit one of Southeast Asia's most laidback capital cities, I was so impressed with the slow life rhythm of people and the amazing nature here, the city has many green spaces and entertainment areas. I really enjoyed the cool evenings in the park near the river in the city.

Don't miss Laos and its temples!!!

One of the most beautiful countries in the world, really enjoy Laos and people, its ancient temples and natural landscapes. Vientiane city is located on the banks of the Mekong River and becomes sparkling at night, it is great to take a walk in the park on the riverbank in this city.
