Itineraries

Day 1: Pakse

Located on the edge of the Mekong River, Pakse is a frontier town and a crossroad for trade between Vietnam, Thailand and Cambodia. Transfer to your hotel, and in the evening meet your fellow travelers and Tour Leader (or local guide).

Accommodation: Pakse hotel

Day 2: Bolaven Plateau

Discover a few of the impressive waterfalls on the fertile Bolaven Plateau – Laos' premier coffee-growing region. During colonial times the Bolaven Plateau was populated by French settlers who were attracted to the cooler climate and fertile soils which created ideal coffee-growing conditions. Today, Lao coffee beans fetch some of the highest prices in the world, and are a source of income for the hilltribes living on the plateau. Visit a small-scale Fair Trade organic coffee farm to sample a freshly brewed Arabica and Robusta coffee. Situated in a forest-setting, Tad Lo Lodge is nestled next to a stream and small waterfall where you may get a glimpse of a small herd of elephants bathing.

Meals: B

Accommodation: Tad Lo lodge

Day 3: Bolaven Plateau to Khone Island

From the Bolaven Plateau continue your journey to Khone Island in the far south of Laos, a trip that includes a relaxing boat ride. This remote part of Laos is situated close to the Cambodian border and is known for its expansive waterways, powerful waterfalls and languid tropical atmosphere.

Meals: B

Accommodation: Sala Done Khone (or similar)

Day 4: 4,000 Islands

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast before driving to Ban Hang Done village to embark on a boat trip in search of the famous and elusive Irrawaddy dolphin. See Li Phi Falls before enjoying a walk through the forest and local villages to your hotel. Visit the remains of the sole railway built by the French during their time in Laos, and the bridge also built by the French which connects Done Khone with Done Det Island. Enjoy free time in the afternoon, and explore the islands at your own pace. Hire a bike or simply enjoy a relaxing stroll.

Meals: B

Accommodation: Sala Done Khone (or similar)

Day 5: Wat Phou & Done Daeng Island

Travel to Khonephapheng Falls, the largest waterfalls in Southeast Asia in terms of water volume. Cross the Mekong River to La Folie Lodge and enjoy free time at the lodge. In the late afternoon, travel to Champasak to explore Wat Phou temple, a World Heritage listed site.

Meals: B

Accommodation: La Folie Lodge (or similar)

Day 6: Done Daeng Island

Set out on a bike ride around Done Daeng Island, which is dotted with shoreline villages, rice fields and swaying coconut palms. The rest of the day is at leisure for you to further explore the island by bicycle or on foot. Alternatively, sip a cocktail by the hotel's gorgeous infinity pool overlooking the Mekong. This evening, enjoy a delicious group dinner at the hotel's restaurant.

Meals: B, D

Accommodation: La Folie Lodge (or similar)

Day 7: Done Daeng Island

Transfer to Pakse airport for your onward journey.

Great trip!

27 May 2019

Whilst traveling in Laos one must go to Bolaven. Whether you're a coffee lover, tea fanatic or just simply love seeing waterfalls the Bolaven Plateau Loop is the thing to do. Hire a motorbike and scoot around on the asphalted roads of the Bolaven Plateau. Get some good coffee along the way and enjoy the scenery which comes in the form of various waterfalls including a really big one! Laos Coffee is the best by the way. For starters, to get away to a small island in the middle of the Mekong is very romantic. Done Daeng Island is a magical place. Worth it.

Amazing!

05 Dec 2018

Nature is beautiful and intriguing, we visited the most beautiful islands in the area by boat, the scenery was romantic with clear water. We also had good lunches and stays. We stopped a small island and watched the sunset here, it's breathtaking and unforgettable.

Big thanks to our guide and operator !

Overall, the tour's itinerary is well-arranged and the guide is very friendly. Meals are also very delicious and the service is good. Thank you for bringing us this wonderful experience !!!

Highly recommend

12 Sep 2017

The seven-day tour of all South Laos is unexpectedly amazing. Our guide and driver are excellent and very knowledgeable. Before choosing this tour, we considered a lot of other cheaper tours, but thanks to the good reviews on the website, the affordable prices and upscale hotels, we finally booked it. This is our second trip to Laos. We appreciate it!!!

Memorable trip

22 May 2017

Wonderful!!!! I have expanded my horizon so much after the tour. Very useful and meaningful, especially with city people like me. The tour guide spoke English very well, we had interesting knowledge about the culture of Laos.
